Name:	Affiliation:

(Notes: Add lines here for as many individuals as needed. At least one of the individuals listed here must be included as a co-author if publishing an article, presenting analyses, writing a program, creating software, or something else using atr-EFP-2025 restricted data.)

- ☐ I will exercise all reasonable and prudent care to maintain the physical and electronic security of atr-EFP-2025 restricted data.
- ☐ If I find information within atr-EFP-2025 restricted data that I believe might permit identification of any individual or institution, I will report the location of this information promptly by email to dbi_db@atr.jp, citing the location of the specific information in question.
- ☐ I have requested access to atr-EFP-2025 restricted data for the sole purpose of lawful use in scientific research, and I will use my privilege of access, if it is granted, for this purpose and no other.
- ☐ I have completed a training program in human research subject protections, and I am submitting proof of having done so. (Attach the proof when submitting this form.)
- ☐ I will indicate the general purpose for which I intend to use the database in my application.

Purpose of use: _____

- ☐ When using this dataset, I will cite the research article describing the present dataset (i.e., “An EEG dataset with carbon wire loops in cognitive tasks and resting state inside and outside MR scanners”; <https://doi.org/10.1038/s41597-026-06734-1>) and also mention in the Method (or some equivalent) section the funding agency supporting the collection of the dataset, namely, Innovative Science and Technology Initiative for Security (Grant Number JPJ004596, ATLA, Japan).
- ☐ This agreement may be terminated by either party at any time, but my obligations with respect to atr-EFP-2025 data shall continue after termination.

Notes: We (atr-EFP-2025) will share an account name and its associated password for accessing the private repository storing the dataset.

“I, hereby attest that this information is true, accurate and complete to the best of my knowledge and I understand that any falsification, omission, or concealment of material fact may subject me to a lawsuit. I declare that the above statements are true and accurate to the best of my knowledge, information and belief.”
